Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works. Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities. Because it loosens and relieves a cold and this nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic. Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

If Belgium survives this war, it will probably insist that its neighbors give bonds to keep the peace.

Women Suffer Terribly from Kidney Trouble.

Around on her feet all day—no wonder a woman has backache, headache, stiff swollen joints, weariness, poor sleep and kidney trouble. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief for these troubles. They strengthen the kidneys—take away the aches, pain and weariness. Make life worth living again. They will absolutely drive out rheumatism, weak back and swollen aching joints due to kidney and bladder trouble. Try Foley Kidney Pills and see how much better you feel.

Bear This in Mind. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by far the best medicine in the market for colds and croup," says Mrs. Albert Blosser, Lima, Ohio. Many others are of the same opinion. Obtainable everywhere.

Give and forget is a good codicil to attach to the Golden Rule.

HACK! HACK! HACK!

With raw picking throat, tight chest, sore lungs, you need Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and quickly. The first dose helps, it gives a soothing healing coating as it glides down your throat, you feel better at once. S. Martin, Bassett, Neb., writes: "I had a severe cold and cold was almost past going. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and am glad to say it cured my cough entirely and my cold soon disappeared." Every user is a friend.—J. C. Perry, druggist.

FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS. Are wholesome, thoroughly cleansing, and have a stimulating effect on the stomach, liver and bowels. Regulate your system with no griping and no unpleasant after effects. Stout people find they give immense relief and comfort. Anti-bulimia. Warren Spofford, Green Bay, Wis., writes: "Foley Cathartic Tablets are the best laxative I ever used. They do the work promptly and with no bad after effects." Try them.—J. C. Perry, druggist.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for Croup.

Croup scares you. The loud hoarse croupy cough, choking and gasping for breath, labored breathing, call for immediate relief. The very first doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will master the croup. It cuts the thick mucus, clears away the phlegm and opens up and eases the air passages. Harold Berg, Mass., Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." Every user is a friend.—J. C. Perry, druggist.

LITTLE BOBBIE'S PA

(By Wm. F. Kirke.)

There was a young man up to our house last night to visit Pa and Ma, he is a relation of Pa from Indiana. His name is Wallace and I don't think he is very bright.

Almost as soon as he got in the house he began to complain to Pa and Ma about having to leave college at the end of his second year. It seems a shame, he said. I know the governor is hard up, but I was doing well in nearly all my studies and had a chance to make the college basketball team if I had stayed a year more. I guess the governor doesn't realize what this means to me, said Wallace.

The war has hit your father pretty hard, my boy, said Pa. I know, because he rode me and told me he had been obliged to lay off most of his salesmen and he sold his automobile.

And well do I know he sold his automobile, said Wallace. Just when I had come home on my vacation and brot a friend with me. We had planned ever so many jolly spins, you know. It is all too bad, he said.

Yes, said Pa. It is all too bad, but in these hard times you ought to get your mind off of jolly spins and figger on doing something to help the old man out. He was always a good friend to you.

But what can I do? said Wallace. My education is only half completed. I am not e-quipped for the battle of life. You can talk off your coat and go to work, said Pa. It seems to me a young man who is husky enough to play basketball is strong enough to lift a medium sized box on to a dray. There is a position open in our shipping department, said Pa. It is only sixty dollars a month. Pa said, but there is a chance for a raise.

Oh, I wouldn't dare to do any lifting, said Wallace. I hurt my back practicing football three months ago, and the doctor told me not to try to lift anything heavy. Besides, what would be the sense of a young man with at least half of a fine college education going at anything like common labor, where he would be likely to forget everything I learned at college.

I don't follow you, Wallace, said Pa. I know a lot of big men in this world that was never really successful until they had forgot all they knew at college. You must remember that your father was doing a grate deal more for you than his father ever did for him, and that he had kept on educating you if it hadn't been for this terrible thing across the ocean. Now, if you want that chance I spoke of, it is open for you.

I sudden think of it, said Wallace, and besides, that wasn't what brot me to the city to see you. I was reading the other day about a rich relation who helped his nephew thru college, and while I know you are not exactly rich, I know you are well fixed, and I was just thinking—

What were you just thinking, Wallace? said Pa.

I was just thinking that maybe you would like to send me thru my last two years of college. Maybe sum day I would be in a position to help you in turn.

Maybe, said Pa, but you took a long trip for nothing. The way things are now, it is about all I can do to keep little Bobbie in the primary grade he is in.
